ABOUT ICA

The India-Canada Association of Kingston (ICA) is a non-profit and non-political community organization that has formally existed in the Kingston area since 1979.

ICA Kingston takes a lead role in planning and staging various cultural and social events of importance to its membership. Participation by members and other volunteers has been a hallmark of functions organized by the Association. The ICA takes great pride in using these events, which are open to all, as a means of making a unique contribution to the quality of life in the Greater Kingston Area as a whole. The ICA also takes responsibility, on behalf of its membership, for providing whatever assistance it can to the Kingston community and beyond, in times of need. This has included donations to

- Canadian Red Cross Tsunami Relief Fund.
- Grand Theater Restoration Fund
- Boys & Girls Club of Kingston

There are many volunteers that have put in countless hours in preparing for this show.

- Firstly the Performers who have worked very hard [and had a lot of fun] practicing.
- Parents driving back & forth to practices
- Teachers & Choreographers
- Poster Artists & Set Designers
- Stage Managers & Costume Designers
- Ushers & Ticket Sellers
- Directory Publishers
- Fund Raisers

To all of you a big Thank-You!
